NYMAC Medical Home Webinar Series
Announcement

The New York-Mid-Atlantic Consortium for Genetics and Newborn Screening Services (NYMAC) invites you to participate in the Medical Home webinar series starting in January 2016.

Learn, interact, and share
Building on the existing efforts and enhancing the care coordination of special health care needs...

After participating in this webinar series, the participants will demonstrate the ability to:

- ✓ Recognize the practical aspects of care coordination including practice team huddles, integration of behavioral health, quality improvement, cultural humility, use of available resources, and patient-centered communication
- ✓ Identify different ways to enhance the partnership with their health care teams for care coordination

All webinars will be held from 12-1 PM Eastern Time
NO registration fee!
