Questions	Answers
How do you encourage clinicians to participate in shared decision-making who may use a more dictated style of communication?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Motivational Interviewing trainings can be very helpful shifting someone away from telling patients what to do vs. involving them in shared decision making.• We also use the C.A.R.E. (connect – appreciate – respond – empower) model at our health center, and trainings are also available in this model through the Institute for Healthcare Communication.
